MERCER GOVERNMENT HUMAN SERVICES CONSULTING

Cross-Agency Collaboration and Organizational Redesign (CCOR)

For over 35 years, we have worked with 45 US states and territories. We bring the right mix of battle-tested experts and multi-disciplinary practitioners to the table to shape real-world solutions and face the toughest issues.

States face challenges in determining how to allocate limited resources and build synergies across sister agencies, divisions, or business units for quality oversight and monitoring purposes. These challenges drive states to rethink moves in new directions despite budget constraints and staffing limitations. The unique depth and breadth within Mercer can bring the combined knowledge and experience of former CMS officials, ex-state Medicaid operational staff, credentialed actuaries, financial analysts, certified public accountants, clinicians, and data analysts – providing a multidisciplinary team to assist the state in its redesign and interagency collaboration efforts.

Mercer's Government Human Services Consulting group helps governmental agencies design, implement, and reorganize organizational structures to oversee their agency directives and programs within budgetary constraints. Our wealth of experience working with states in designing, implementing, and monitoring governmental programs makes us valuable partners for states needing assistance with organizational changes and cross-agency collaboration.
